- Your support helps our Association maintain its web site and allows the art of I-Liq Chuan to be spread throughout the world.

Some of the purposes of the organization are:

- To establish, develop, sponsor, promote, and conduct educational programs in the art of I-Liq Chuan—an internal martial and Chi Kung system that promotes mental and physical well being. “I-Liq Chuan” translates from the Chinese as “mental physical art”. A practitioner of I-Liq Chuan seeks to achieve self-discipline, self-recognition and self-realization through a series of physical and mental exercises that utilize Taoist principles and Zen concepts;
- To establish, develop, sponsor, promote and conduct an informational exchange providing all interested persons with the details of seminars, workshops and classes in I-Liq Chuan offered throughout the world;
- To establish, develop, sponsor, promote and conduct educational programs to train teachers in the art of I-Liq Chuan;
- To lease or own instructional space, if necessary;
- To provide a means of communication with other organized groups with similar interests in order to advance the art of I-Liq Chuan and to promote goodwill and understanding with such groups.
